

PRIVACY POLICY

Integra Premium Finance may collect as much information as possible about you and your transaction, some of which may be publicly available. We may contract with third party service providers who supply us with information regarding your credit and payment history and overall financial condition.

We may collect the following nonpublic and non-personal information about you:

- 1) Information we receive from you on premium finance agreements and other forms.
- 2) Information we receive from a consumer-reporting agency.
- 3) Information about you transaction with us, our affiliates or others.
- 4) Information you share with your agent or broker.

We do not disclose any non-public personal information about you to anyone except as is necessary in order to provide our product or services to you or other wise as we are required or permitted by law (e.g. fraud investigation, regulatory reporting, subpoena, etc.) We do not sell any of your information to anyone. We restrict access to your information to our employees, our affiliates' employees or others who need to know that information to service your account.
